INVITATION WITH HANDWRITTEN NOTATION

A personal invitation to join the founding members of the exclusive Hollywood Museum Associates Board of Directors. In part: "The Hollywood Museum Associates Board of Directors extends to Marilyn Monroe the honor to become one of the founder members, and to enjoy the full privileges of its association with the county of Los Angeles Hollywood Motion Picture and Television Museum." Also present are two typed related notes and an architectural rendered image of the museum. One of the notes dated April 9, 1962 includes a handwritten notation in Marilyn's hand, accepting the invitation. In full: "Yes, I'll do it - make out check please."

The Hollywood Museum Associates Board of Directors

extends to

Marilyn Monroe

The Honor to become one of the Founder Members, and to enjoy the full privileges of its association with the County of Los Angeles
Hollywood Motion Picture and Television Museum

The name of each Founder Member will be inscribed in bronze on the wall of honor in the Rotunda of the Museum at the time of its dedication.

The favor of a reply is requested

Dear Marilyn:

The historical opportunity to become a Founder Member of the Hollywood Museum Associates will soon pass.

You have been nominated to be a Founder Member because we believe that the founding of the Hollywood Museum should record the names of the leaders of the community.

The name of each Founder Member will be perpetuated in bronze on the Wall of Honor in the Rotunda of the Museum at the time of its dedication.

Your acceptance will hearten those of us who are working in the interest of the Museum, and your name will be placed where it rightfully belongs.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Harry Brand

Dear Marilyn
